

The regularly scheduled March 17 meeting of the Environmental Review Board has been cancelled and will be rescheduled due to the appointment of new members. The Board of Commissioners has been accepting member applications for expired seats and will make appointments soon. After that time, we will announce a rescheduled meeting date.