

INTEGRATED OPEN SPACE AREA CONCEPT PLAN:
 The intent of this concept is to use existing stream and topographic features to create open space and development pods in an environmentally sensitive manner. An area for affordable housing, and a regional wastewater plant have been included.

Development pods surround the park/open space, and extend up to the point where stream crossings would be required.

