For Office Use:

Please see PERMITTING FLOW CHART to determine which permit and plan requirements apply to your project and then check one of the boxes below:

- Land-Disturbing Permit. The following items are required to obtain this permit: completed application, plans, and fees. Land-Disturbing Permit applications must include all parcels/lots on one application with the total amount of disturbance in acres for all parcel/lots. All clearing and disturbance must be included when calculating disturbed area.

Fee Requirements:
Permit Fee: $250/disturbed acre
Plan Review Fee: $250/disturbed acre
Fees are rounded up to the next whole acre. Example: 1 acre or less is $500, 1.01-2 acres is $1,000, and 2.01-3 is $1,500.

Plan Requirements:
Design Plan: submit (1) copy of an erosion control plan completed & sealed by a professional land surveyor, professional engineer, or registered landscape architect. This plan must meet the criteria of the Chatham County Erosion Control Plan Review Checklist and include all applicable construction details. These can be found on the Chatham County Watershed Protection website, on the Erosion Control webpage. This plan must satisfy all local, state, and federal minimum plan requirements.
General Plan: submit (1) copy of site plan along with the Chatham County Residential General Plan. Site plan is not required to be completed by a design professional. The Residential General Plan can be found on the Chatham County Watershed Protection website on the Residential Construction webpage. Indicate lot drainage pattern(s) on sheet 1 of the Residential General Plan.

- Residential Lot Permit. The following items are required to obtain this permit: completed application (if required, see note 4 on PERMITTING FLOW CHART), site plan, and fee.

Fee Requirements:	Plan Requirements:

Soil Erosion and Sedimentation Control Financial Responsibility/Ownership Form

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION:

- 1) This section must be signed in the presence of a Notary
- 2) All Land-Disturbing permits are valid for up to (2) years from the date of issuance. If circumstances warrant, the permit may be extended for (2) years per the conditions of the Chatham County Soil Erosion and Sedimentation Control Ordinance. Upon written notice, the Land-Disturbing permit may be revoked for failure to comply with the Ordinance. If the permit is revoked, all other permits and approvals are withheld until the property is once again in compliance with Chatham County regulations. Also, upon written notice, a civil penalty (fine) can be instigated against the property owner and/or additional financially responsible party (if any) for violations of the Chatham County Soil Erosion and Sedimentation Control Ordinance. This penalty is up to $5000.00 per violation per day and is assessed daily for every day the property is in violation. Interfering with or hampering an inspection can result in a civil penalty without written notice.
