Town of Cary
Housing Bonds

Additional property taxes may be levied on property located in the Town of Cary, North Carolina in an amount sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on bonds if approved by the following ballot question.

Shall the order adopted on July 25, 2024, authorizing $30,000,000 HOUSING BONDS of the Town of Cary, North Carolina, plus interest, for the purpose of providing funds, together with any other available funds, for community development programs to provide and rehabilitate housing inside the corporate limits of said Town, principally for the benefit of persons of low and moderate income, including, without limitation, (a) the construction or rehabilitation of housing or neighborhood revitalization improvements, (b) programs to provide loans and other financial assistance to such persons and to public and private providers of housing and (c) the acquisition of any related land and rights of way and the acquisition and installation of related infrastructure and equipment, and providing that additional taxes may be levied in an amount sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on said bonds be approved, in light of the following:

(1) The estimated cumulative cost over the life of said bonds, using the highest interest rate charged for similar debt over the last 20 years, would be $47,615,115, consisting of the $30,000,000 principal amount of said bonds, plus $17,615,115 of estimated interest.

(2) The estimated amount of property tax liability increase for each one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) of property tax value to service the cumulative cost over the life of said bonds provided above would be $5.00 per year.
