

CAN YOU REACH THE NEXT LEVEL?

Chatham County Senior Games is considered a “Local Games” of North Carolina Senior Games. Medalists in Local Games qualify for participation in North Carolina Senior Games.

From there, State Games participants have the ability to advance to National Games - and even international competition.

How far can you go as a medalist from Chatham County? It’s really all up to you!

THANKS TO YOU, WE KEEP GROWING.

Each year, Chatham County Senior Games & SilverArts continues to be a model for local games around the state of North Carolina.

In 2024, a total of 375 participants took part in the Games, establishing a new record! A total of 145 participants took part for the first time and discovered the fun and fellowship that our event has to offer.

Whether you’re an avid athlete through track and field, cycling, or tennis or prefer to explore your artistic side in SilverArts events, there’s a place to express your abilities at Chatham County Senior Games & SilverArts!
